Boyd Bingham

I am looking for any information about my great-great grandfather Samuel Butler born in Steuben County in 1806. We have no concrete evidence of his parents identity although it is probable that he was at least raised by Joseph Butler and Mary Jeffers. Perhaps they were his parents or they could have raised him. He married Samantha Hicks (not absolutely sure that was her last name) in about 1823. She died a year or so later shortly after a son Stephen was born. Any birth information or marriage information about Samuel or Samantha would be extremely helpful. Also we think he was a Methodist preacher.....Thank you

Tamarah Cummings

I am looking for any information on a THOMAS CUMMINGS married to a LOIS EATON. The only solid information I have is that their son GEORGE WASHINGTON CUMMINGS was christened on 8 Oct 1811 in Bath, Steuben, New York. I also have siblings listed as BENJAMIN FRANKLIN CUMMINGS, DANIEL WEBSTER CUMMINGS, HENRY CLAY CUMMINGS and a sister. In researching I have read mention of a THOMAS CUMMINGS living in the town of Wheeler (very close to Bath) in about 1800. It said he lived in a place called "Mutton Hollow". I'm really stumped on this guy so if anyone out there can help it would be greatly appreciated.

Wm. and Penny Kresl

Am looking for information concerning descendant's of John and Mary (Little) CHAMBERLAIN m. 1808 in Sussex Co, NJ. I have only recently discovered that my gggg grandparent's moved to Steuben Co. NY and had at least One child (there probably was many more) my ggg grandfather, James Atherton Chamberlain b. 1813. James married Eley Ann Williams in 1839 in Steuben Co, NY and had Children: Frances F. b. 1840, John W. b. 1842, George Stephen b. 1843 and James Henry b. 1845(my gg). Eley Ann Williams is a descendant of Roger Williams from RI. Her line has been well established and James Altherton Chamberlain is listed as a spouse to Eley in the histories of descendant's of Roger Williams and his first wife, Mary Barnard. She descended from Daniel Williams one of their children. I knew James A. and Eley removed to Rock Co, WI and raised their children in the village of Emerald Grove, WI. What I recently found was that James's father was John Chamberlain and mother was Mary Little and they too are buried in Rock /Walworth Co. Are there any connections to my Chamberlain's that hailed from my Steuben, NY line? Thanks for any replies.

Sam F. Heal

Searching for a lost branch of my family. Lived on farms close to Dansville NY. Visited there with my grandmother in 1939. No records exist as to who they were. I believe that one of them was a cousin (or Aunt) of my grandmother. I found a list of names in her things with dates I believe to be birth dates. No year is given. The surname is GILBERT. At the top of the list is Seymour Oliver and Alice Esidean GILBERT noted as Ma and Pa. I tried to access the cemetery list but couldn't get on. All of the people on the list are probably dead Would like any available info you have on them and in particular GILBERT descendants info and ancestors of Seymour and Alice.

Bryan Cass - address corrected current as of 9/25/02

Aaron CASS, a Revolutionary War veteran, and his wife Ruth Bull Cass moved from Ulster Co. to Dryden around 1805. He settled on a military tract as a farmer. He died in the Battle of Queenston in the War of 1812 while standing in for his son Josiah, who was on leave. I have yet to find Aaron's or Ruth's burial date or place. I would appreciate any information you might have. Aaron and Ruth's children, most of which moved to Steuben or Schuyler County by 1820:

Sally Cass, m. Milo Hurd

Maria Cass, m. James Lewis Whitney

Jane Cass, m. Solomon Campbell

Mary Cass, m. Solomon Freer

Josiah Cass, m. Eunice French

Moses Cass, m. Elizabeth Mott

Aaron Cass, m. Anna French

John Cass, m. Susan ?

I am also looking for information about the descendants of Aaron Cass (m. Anna French) as well - they lived in the Reading/Watkins area until the 1860's.

Jim McVeigh

I have the complete data as to the AVERY's and Monroe's who lived in about Cohocton and Wayland early 1800's. Will share this but maybe you have the complete data. Would like to set correspondence with local Genealogical Society. I am a little short on history but have all the "who begat who" going back in one instance to 1100. Would you suggest a historian for the time and area. One Monroe was named Marquis De Lafayette. They called him "Mark" This is absolutely marvelous. Looking forward to your answer.

J. A. Dresser

DRESSER-RYAN Lemuel DRESSER, b. 1798, died 1854, buried in POAGSHOLE CEMETERY in Steuben County, along with sons Collins and William, who also died in 1854. If there is a register for this cemetery, can anyone tell if Lemuel's father, Aaron DRESSER, who died in Dansville in 1820, is also buried there, or anywhere else in Steuben County? Also, Lemuel's wife, Elizabeth DRESSER, who died about 1865? John DRESSER, b. 1820, married about 1838 Jane RYAN, b. 1821. Their first son, Charles, was b. 1839, and may give a clue to Jane's family name? Also, after moving on to Ogle Co, IL, in the 1850's, a neighbor was Michael RYAN, of an age to be a brother to Jane. Does anyone know of a RYAN family in the area who may have this daughter? Any information would be greatly appreciated.

Carmen Covert Westwood Luellman

I am seeking information on Smith COVERT. Believed to be born abt. 1822 in Steuben Co. NY. I would like to find his parents name and siblings. In an 1880 and 1885 census report he listed his birth place as NY. His father's birth place as NY or Vermont. May have changed the name from De Covert to Covert. I would be happy to trade information with anyone who has further Covert or De Covert information. Thank you.

BIRGERT/BURGET/BURGETT/BURGHARDT and allied families of WARD and PATTERSON:

Seeking information about the ancestors, family, and descendants of Lambert BIRGERT/BURGET/BURGETT/BURGHARDT [b. 1 Apr 1764, Hillsdale, Columbia Co., NY; d. 6 Aug 1850, Painted Post, Steuben Co., NY] and his brother-in-law, Abijah WARD [b. 2 Oct 1757; d. 15 Jan 1835, Painted Post, Steuben Co., NY]. Abijah WARD m. Rachel BIRGERT, the twin sister of Lambert BIRGERT. Both Lambert BIRGERT and Abijah WARD enlisted for Revolutionary War service at Hillsdale, Columbia Co., NY. The families of Lambert BIRGERT and Abijah WARD removed from Schoharie Co., NY to Painted Post, Steuben Co., NY in 1819. There were probably at least two children for Abijah and Rachel: Aaron [b. bef. 1825, Painted Post, Steuben Co., NY and a dau. [name unknown] [b. bef. 1825, Painted Post, Steuben Co., NY]. Both Lambert and his wife, Margaret [ECKERSON] BURGET, as well as Abijah and Rachel [BURGET] WARD were buried in the Erwin Townsend Cem., Erwin, Steuben Co., NY. It is also interesting to note that brothers Benjamin and Robert PATTERSON, both Revolutionary War veterans, were also buried at the same cemetery. It is known that BURGET and PATTERSON individuals intermarried in NY, OH, and OR.

Seeking descendants of Mildred BAKER RICHARDSON b. Canistee, NY. She is/was a descendant of John BAKER of Hartford, CT through the Revolutionary patriot, Jeremiah BAKER, Sr. of Middletown, CT, who migrated to Steuben Co. NY. This information abstracted from the Lineage Book Vol.10-12 of the Daughters of Founders; Patriots of America (1943) when I was at the CT State Library, Hartford, CT in April 1997. The ancestry starts with (1) John (2) Bazey (3) Timothy (4) Jeremiah (5) Jeremiah (6) Nathan. Nathan S. (1828 - ) marr (1) Roxie ORDWAY and (2) Hila STEPHENS. Mildred Hila BAKER is listed as a dau of Nathan S. BAKER in the Ancestry of Timothy BAKER and Hannah CANDEE (Ref. Ancestral File - LDS Library) Our ancestry meets with my 5gr-grandfather Nathaniel BAKER being a brother to her Timothy. Would like to share information on BAKER family with any descendants of the above Mildred BAKER RICHARDSON.

John R. Garrison

Need info. on John A. GARRISON, Samuel B. Garrison of Reading, Steuben Co, N.Y. I believe their father was Samuel Garrison, who was captured by the British in 1777. He died in the Sugarhouse prison of smallpox. His two sons were given letters of patent to 200 acres of land as a compensation for the services of said Samuel Garrison. John A. and Samuel B. are listed on the 1810 census of Reading. Could they be the Samuel and John Garrison listed on the 1820 census Of Monroe, Orange Co. N.Y.? Could John be the John Garrison listed on the 1800 census of Minisink, Orange Co. N.Y. page 329? Could John be the father of Samuel W. Garrison born 1796, Orange Co N.Y. who settled in Colchester, Del. Co. N.Y. 1823? If not what ever happened to John A. and Samuel B Garrison of the 1810 census of Reading. Hoping to hear from someone. Thank you.

My family of Frederick CONKLIN and his wife Elizabeth (BUTLER) were living in Cameron, Steuben Co. and listed with the following children on the 1850 census (p. 346).

Frederick 31 m laborer b NY

Elizabeth 31 f "

Albert 8 m "

Henrietta 6 f "

Asher 4 m "

Samantha 2 f "

They do not appear on the 1855 or 1860 census but the son, Asher Conklin, is buried in Town Line Cemetery, Rathbone. He was b 1846 and d 1856. His older brother Albert, 19, is living with the family of Augustus L. Shephard and is listed as a farm laborer. By 1960 the family was living in upper Michigan (Delta Co.) and had children Henrietta, Samantha, Jacob T., Jane and Charles. Place of birth is not given for the last three children. From this point on, I have lots of information.

Need to find out more about the family while they were in NY. I descend through Henrietta who married Douglas THOMPSON and had 7 children. Does Frederick CONKLIN belong to any of you? Will gladly share info. by email. Thanks!

I am looking for data on my grandfather, Willis O. CADY and his sister Mary CADY. Both were listed in the 1880 census of the 2'nd District of Hornellsville. WILLIS was 21 and MARY was 16 (both were born in PA.) no parents were listed. Would like to find a marriage record of MARY CADY sometime after 1880 to identify her parents and where she may have born in PA. Willis' given name may have been WALLACE. His death cert (1905) list his mother as CATHERINE STEDMAN and father unknown. He was married once before to a NY woman (name unknown) Would also like to know what his first wife's name was, if married first time in Steuben Co. circa 1882. They had a daughter named Pearl L. Cady b. July 1883

BACON and CUTLER

I am researching BACON and CUTLER surnames in the Coming-Painted Post area of Steuben County. Dr. James S. Cutler came to Steuben County in 1825 with his wife, the former Mary KIMBALL, from VT. He married second Emily Harrington from Poland Township in Chautauqua County. His son, James Elliott CUTLER, married Mary C. LUCE. Their son, William Walden CUTLER married first Augusta HARRINGTON, originally from Chautauqua County but living in Berkshire CO, MA at the time they married. They had one son, Frank Nelson, b. 15 Oct 1879. He married Florence Lottie BACON in 1902. She was the daughter of Oswin Isaiah BACON and Henrietta NORTON. They had three daughters, Genevieve Augusta, m. Harry S. SCHLIEFF, Laura Etta, m. Kenneth HOLLISTER, and Florence Althea, m. William J. MCCARTHY. They were my parents. I was born in Coming and lived in Painted Post until July, 1957 when Coming Glass Works built a plant in Greenville OH and Dad was transferred here. If you have any information on these families, I would appreciate hearing from you. Thanks. Pat McCarthy

CLARK

Edna Amelia CLARK or CLARKE was born to Handy or Handee CLARK and (?) SHEPHERD on December 10, 1834 in Steuben County, NY according to her death record in Cerro Gordo County, Iowa on February 4, 1907. Can anyone verify this information with Steuben County sources? Conflicting family history tells of her marriage to Thomas Stanton GARDNER and the fact that they met in Ohio when his wagon train was snow bound. Edna Amelia and Thomas Stanton GARDNER were married (according to the Civil War papers of Thomas GARDNER) on 24 Dec. 1852 in Belfast, Allegany County, NY. Need information on the CLARK Family. #### BEERS / BALDWIN / DEMAREST

Family oral history has Arthur Howard BEERS born in "Orange County," but we now suspect the town of Orange in what was Steuben, is now Schuyler Co. AHB was born in 1849, the son of Margaret Mary BALDWIN and [possibly Richard?] Beers. More family folklore that Baldwins were related to DEMARESTs. Found AHB and his family in Yates County in 1900 but nothing relevant in 1860 or 1870 Schuyler Co. census. Pre-1854 Steuben County is now our best hope for solving this puzzle. Jo Ann Kaufman

DORRENBACHER

I am interested on where I can find records on some ancestors who "passed through" Cohocton in the late 1880s. My g-grandfather, John Christian DORRENBACHER, and his wife Anna Mary (sometimes Mary Ann), came to the U.S. in 1880 from Germany. I know that he was born in St. Wendel in 1853. Her maiden name was SCHAAD or SCHADT or SCHODT (various spellings!). I believe they married before they came to the U.S. (If not, they married shortly after he arrived in the U.S.) They settled in Cohocton, where I believe they became U.S. citizens. Where would I get naturalization records for Steuben County? They had at least three children born there: Mary Ann in 1882, Andrew L. in 1885, and Theresa in 1887. There were several other children: J. J., Frank, Cecelia and Nicholas. I believe they may have been born in Cohocton. (Catherine and Margaret, the two youngest, were born in Indiana and Georgia, respectively.) The family left the Cohocton area around 1900. Where could I obtain birth records for this period of time? BUNCE

Is anyone researching the family and descendants of Jonah BUNCE, whose name appeared on the 1820 census of Town of Reading, Steuben Co,NY? A portion of Reading was ceded to Yates Co,NY on 1 Jan 1826, and became the towns of Barrington and Starkey, Yates Co,NY. I'm interested in learning what relationship, if any, Jonah BUNCE may have had to my g.g.grandfather, Peter BUNCE (1772-1844), who immigrated with his family from Hillsdale, Columbia Co,NY and settled in what later became Barrington, Yates Co, NY in the spring/summer of 1823.Also was Jonah BUNCE related to Isaac BUNCE, who served in the War of 1812 from what was then Steuben Co, NY? Isaac filed for and received two bounty land warrants for his war service and relocated to Loraine Co, OH, where he died. Isaac was b.in Vermont ca. 1790, based on his age given in his bounty land warrant applications;he m.Comelia Vosburgh of the Town of Starkey and they had 4 or 5 daughters in OH.

DENNIS

I am compiling a database of descendants of Thomas DENNIS (1638-1706) of Ipswich, Mass. Many of these descendants live or once lived in Steuben County -- Homell, Jasper, Greenwood, Cameron, etc. "Patriarchs", who came from New Hampshire in the early 1800s include Moses Jr., Samuel, and others. I would appreciate information from descendants.
