Seeking info regarding Thomas SCHUTT, m. Sarah Karcher Steuben Co, 1846. Thomas b. Jan 1821 in PA, parents unknown. Thomas and Sarah migrated to Southern CA, Thomas d. 7 Jan 1907, Sarah d. 6 Oct 1914. Both buried Artesia, CA. Thomas probably had brothers who lived in vicinity of Wayland. Sarah's parents were Martin and Jerusha Hall Karcher. Schutt and Karcher families moved to Kalamo TS, Eaton Co, MI by 1860. Thomas was from PA and his mother and father were from PA. I do not know the parents of Thomas Shutt. They were in Steuben Co in 1850 in Wayland TS. By at least 1870, The Thomas Shutt family had moved to Eaton Co., MI. They both then moved to Southern California where they both died. They are buried in the Artesia Cemetery in Artesia, CA. In 1850, there were other Shutt families living in Wayland TS. Their names were Charles and Nancy Shutt, John and Saveris?? (Couldn't read census writing) and Linford and Lydia Shutt. Martin Karcher shows up in the 1840 census in Steuben Co, Cohocton TS. If any of these folks strike a chord, please drop me a note. I have extensive information on the family after they leave Steuben Co NY. Thanks in advance for the help.

I would like to place a query in Steuben Co. I am researching the ROTSELL family of Coming, NY. I believe some are buried in Hope Cemetery, Coming. They also worked in the glass factory in the early 1900's. I would appreciate any information.

Ronald J. Sorter

I am seeking information of the ancestors and descendants of Jacob S. SORTER, b. 8 May 1802, NJ, d. 6 May 1882, Ovid Twp., Branch Co., MI and Hannah Clark. d. 27 Apr 1876, Ovid Twp., Branch Co., MI. Jacob Sorter moved to Steuben Co., NY with his parents when he was a young child. He was reared in Steuben County, where he married and settled, buy land, and living there until 1838. In 1838 Jacob, his wife and two children moved to Ovid Twp., Branch Co., MI. Only one of this couples eight children has been definitely indentified: William C. Sorter and he was born after their arrival in Michigan. The two older children may have been Andrew J. and James M. Sorter, these Civil War veterans are buried in Sorter family burial plots in Branch Co., MI. I believe Jacob's parent may have died in Steuben Co. He may have also had siblings that remained in Steuben Co. I need the identification of Jacob's parents to tie this family into my family database. I have records on this family going back to the early 1700's and some allied families going back to the early 1600's to share with fellow researchers.

I am looking for my Silsby (Silsbe) line in Steuben Co.. Mary Silsby was born 9 June, 1833 in Steuben Co. NY. She was a twin and shows up in the 1850 Steuben census as living with parents, David & Sarah C. Silsby. They all went to Winnebago Co., Wisconsin before 1854. David & Sarah had at least seven children as his will included that many. Harriet m. Abram Quick, Julia m. Burnett, Jane, Sarah C., Levinia, Helen, and Mary. Sarah married Jacob Van Doren and also shows up in the census as living nearby. Wills obtained show a David as son of John and a John as the son of Enos, all of that county, but I have been unable to connect them. Any help with this family would be very much appreciated.

I need to know if anyone has anything on the ROSS family of Steuben Co NY. I am going on a guess that my line of Ross may have come from here. I have a Sarah ROSS that married a William MOSELEY in Bureau Co IL. It is stated that she came from Howard Co NY. Since there is no Howard Co they may have meant Howard town. Her mother was Elizabeth but do not know the father was. Just the last name of ROSS-NY. She had three sisters, Mary Ann, Marie, both born NY, and Jane, born Upper Canada. There may also have been a brother Charles born NY. The time frame for this is the 1820s. By 1845 the family is in Bureau Co IL. Please help.

Thomas ROWLES (b. 1753; probably Baltimore, MD; d. 1813 Steuben Co, NY) m. Christiana BRANSON (b. 1756?; d. 1803 Steuben Co, NY), 2 Feb 1787 Baltimore. They moved to Bradford, Steuben Co, NY, c1800, where he reportedly open the area's first hotel.

David ROWLES (b. Oct 1792; d. 1868 Monroe Co, IA), a son of Thomas and Christiana, m. Rebecca CLARK (b. 1798 Dutchess Co, NY; d. 1882 Monroe Co, IA), 8 Aug 1814 Steuben Co, NY. David was a War of 1812 veteran. They migrated first to Covington, Fountain County, IN, in 1823, where David (like his father) opened the county's first hotel or inn; they moved to Iowa Territory in 1844. There are numerous ROWLES/ROLES/ROLLS families in 18th century Maryland. Can anyone identify Thomas's connections there? Did any other of the ROWLES families of Maryland move to New York State? (This seems an unlikely migration pattern....) Information on the parentage of Christiana BRANSON and Rebecca CLARK would also be most welcome.

Seeking information about the STEUBEN CLUB in New York state. Some sort of German-American society formed between WWI and WWII.

I am especially interested in any legal or criminal problems the club ran into. Rumor has it my grandfather got into some trouble in the 1930's in this organization. I need to fill in the details. Thanks.

Sheila Stratton-Peel (updated e-mail: 09-07-00)

I am in need of some assistance in finding the first wife of my grandfather Herman Stratton. He married Sarah Drake of Horseheads on October 5, 1901 in the village of Wayne. I have no record of her death or a divorce, although I know that was not done very often then. My Aunt Winifred's birth certificate states that there had been 2 children born to Herman before her. One we know of, Robert the other we think may have been a child Sarah. Also do you have any records about Perry B. Stratton, he was the father of Herman and the grandfather of my dad Gerald L. Stratton. My grandmothers name was Grace M. Whitney. She was born in Addison. I would love to have any information about Sarah Drake Stratton or any of the others. Thanks.

Gordon Stuart

For several years now I have been trying to find the parents of Peter STUART / STEWART. Peter(my grandfather)was born in Prattsville/Cattskill, NY Aug. 14,1844.Apparently something happened to the parents and it appears that he grew up in Beech Pond (now Beach Lake),PA. He served briefly in the Civil War and returned to Beech Pond, married Angenette Montgomery and raised first family. Moved to Scranton, PA early 1800's. Angenette passed away in 1892 and Peter found his way to upstate NY around 1895. In 1904 he married my grandmother , Cora Vangelder, and raised 2nd family in Bath, NY. Some records are under the surname STEWART and others under STUART. Found a Mary (Steward) Holbert listed as Carrie McKee's mother in Syracuse, NY who may have been Peter's sister. Also a Samuel Stuart is listed as father of Eldine Burns, mother of Guy Burns, Guy now lives in Canandagua, NY. There are connections here someplace but hard to ferrit out. Guy is a second cousin, once removed on the Coots side.

Seeking information on the SWART family. Amos SWART was b. in Bath, Steuben Co., NY, 25 Sept 1859, son of Albert Linmond SWART and Clairia (?). His mother died in Algona, Kossuth Co., IA. Amos married Rozella Stella Young, dau. of Lyman Young and Eunice Rand. Rozella's parents died in South Dakota. Amos and Rozella had a son that was born in South Dakota, so one might assume that they died there, but I haven't found anything as of yet. Any information on the SWART or related families would be appreciated.

Bruce Rockwell

Interested in any information on an Ephraim SANFORD who is listed as living in Steuben County in a Luzerne County, Pa. deed in 1794. Possible that he is the father of an Ezra SANFORD who bought land in Caneadea, Allegany Co, NY in 1803.

ROGERS

I am seeking information on the John ROGERS family from Greenwood, Steuben, NY I am a descendent of Abraham WILLIAMSON of Greenwood. Abraham's son Chester b Nov 6, 1823(25) m Electa ??? (possibly a ROGERS) and they moved to Bureau Co., IL before 1860. I am led to believe that Electa was a ROGERS by the following: Bureau Co., IL land records Book 98 page 179 filed Nov. 24, 1888 at 7:00A.M. shows that the children and heirs at law of John ROGERS to wit: Nelson ROGERS and wife Catherin, John ROGERS and wife Lodina, Jackson ROGERS and wife Elizabeth, Freeman ROGERS and wife Charity all of Steuben Co., NY, Bilsy (Knox???) a widow, Caroline GREEN and husband Pardon, Catharine PERKINS and her husband Alexander all of Alleghany Co., NY sold to Chester and Electa WILLIAMSON for the sum of $1.00 and other good and valuable considerations a 40 acre lot in Bureau Co., IL. Chester and Electa had purchased 8 acres in 1885 for $100.00. Apparently the price of the land indicates that somehow either Electa or Chester were related to the ROGERS family. Chester and Electa named children Pardon and Seymour. I find the name Seymor ROGERS in the census records (WFT FTM 1850). Also, according to the census records of Family Tree Maker WFT census bundle, the WILLIAMSON and ROGERS families were living close together in Greenwood. In fact the 1850 census has some of the WILLIAMSON children listed on the same page as the ROGERS family. Abraham WILLIAMSON had a daughter named Charity. Is this the Charity, wife of Freeman ROGERS? If you have any genealogical or biological information on these people, please e-mail or snail mail me.

PETERSON Interested in PETERSON who lived in Wellsville, NY around 1870. He changed his name to PETERS. His father was SOLOMON PETERSON my gg grandfather. Lillian Snyder

PRIEST My ancestors Benjamin PRIEST and his wife Polly GENUNG were married in Reading, Steuben County. I am searching for the names of Benjamin's parents. Where could I find this information? My great-great-great grandfather was Oliver PRIEST and as they both lived in the same county at one time I suspect they may be brothers. Florence Dixon

SPIKE I am searching for information on the SPIKE family of VT and NY. My earliest known ancestor in this line is Daniel SPIKE, a Rev War soldier born ca. 1759. He was living in Stillwater (now Saratoga Co., NY) when he enlisted in the Rev War at Albany, NY, in 1776. After the war, he married Rosanna Fuller. Their first child, Margaret SPIKE, was born 16 March 1789 in Saratoga Co., NY. Other children were: Thankful, Daniel, Josiah, Marcy, Catherine, Lucy, and Sally. The family removed to Cohocton, Steuben Co., NY, before 1820. Daniel and Rosanna died at Cohocton in 1845 and 1844, respectively. There is an earlier PIKE family in Mass. that is sometimes recorded as SPIKE. Is there a connection with my Daniel? Will exchange all SPIKE family information. Ted Steele St. Louis, Mo.

PARK I would like to research my father's family last name PARK who had at least three generations in Addison. My mother Marjorie Manners Leete also from Addison (by way of Ulysses, Pa.) married my dad James Holden Park in 1929. Jim Park

Spragues Looking for Spragues, Van Gelders, Rutans, Baileys, and Bauters in Steuben County from 1860-1900. Barbara Moore

Sturdevant I am interested in finding information on the Abijah Sturdevant family. Handwritten family notes list two children born in Bath, Steuben Co. NY in the 1790 era. Calculations put a third child between the other two. Other family records also spell the name SturdEvant, but it is possible to have been mis-represented as SturdIvant. The occupation of Abijah was minister or elder. The family had moved to Luzerne Co. PA by 1800. Gail M. Snow, Grand Rapids, MI

SHAUGER I am seeking information on the SHAUGER family. My understanding is that there are still family members (descendants) of William H. SHAUGER (b: 22 May 1842 in Barum, Sussex Co., NJ; d: 2 Dec. 1922 in West Savona, Steuben Co., NY) living in Steuben Co. I am also looking for information William H. SHAUGER's wife Margaret MARTIN (b: 30 Jan. 1851 in Addison, Steuben Co., NY; d: 11 Feb. 1891 in Gerry, Chataqua Co., NY), as well as her parents John MARTIN and Ardelia LOOK (of Bath, NY). Dwight J. ROACH I am trying to find the parents names of Chester ROACH, born April 1833 in Bath, Steuben county. He was first discovered on the 1850 census in Bath living with the Archibald GATES family. Chester was 16 years old at the time. His occupation was listed as "farmer". In 1855 he was again found in Bath living with the Lawrence CHURCH family. His occupation was listed as Tinner. I have been unable to find any information on his parents in the county records. Since Chester was just 16 in 1850 and living with another family, I thought possibly his parents had died and left him orphaned. It was not uncommon for boys younger than that to leave home and go to work for other families, but I had hoped there would be something on his parents in the census, or if they had died, in the probate records etc. I have written Steuben County many times and they find nothing. Will appreciate any clues. Claudia Schuman

ROSA I'm looking for information about Ellen Mercy ROSA and her parents Andrew Rosa and Nancy Brownell. Ellen was born in Steuben County March 31, 1860. Her family moved to Benzie County, Michigan shortly after she was born. She had sisters, maybe brothers too, but I have no names. Both parents list their birthplace as NY on census records from MI. O'HARA I am looking for any information on the PATRICK O'HARA Family in Gang Mills, Painted Post, and Coming, NY areas in 1860s and beyond. Patrick was married to ELISHIE BURK (E) daughter of JOHN BURKE of Painted Post. Patrick and Elishie's children were: MARY O'HARA married to WILLIAM BAXTER William worked at Coming Glass Works, and they lived in Coming. MARGARET O'HARA married to GEORGE NOKE (S). George Noke (s) I believe was part owner of the Thomas Shotton Glass Company which became one of the largest cut glass businesses in the US. HELEN O'HARA married to JOHN SHIELDS of Brooklyn, NY. JULIA O'HARA, lived in Brooklyn, NY with Nokes family. JOHN MARTIN O'HARA married to AMELIA DEEMER and then to her sister MARY DEEMER. JAMES JOSEPH O'HARA married to JOSEPHINE LEARY. PAUL O'HARA who must have been born in Steuben County. He died at an early age and is buried in family plot at St. Mary's Parish Cemetery in Coming, NY. It is noted in family history that when Elishie died, Patrick went to PA where he married again, but it didn't work out and no one in the family was ever to mention it. Patrick came from Ireland and first went to London, Ontario Canada before moving to the Gang Mills and Painted Post area of NY. Some of the children were born in Ontario and some may have been born in NY. Any information on this family would be greatly appreciated, birth records, census reports, land or wills, immigration & naturalization, anything... Thank you O'HARA
