Need documentation on the parents of Ezra A. TOBIAS (born 20 Jan 1801, near Bath, NY - died 22 Oct 1899, Baltimore Twp., Barry Co., MI). Family records give his parents' names as Daniel TOBIAS (supposedly killed by a bear) and Mercy FITCH. a family member wrote that, "He and his nine brothers were orphans by the time Ezra was eight. There was no money for shoes so Ezra went to school barefooted. In the winter he carried with him a long slab shingle. When his feet got too cold running through the snow he would stop and stand on the shingle to warm his numb toes." Ezra's father was born in Scotland but came to America and fought against the British in the Revolutionary War. Ezra was born in 1801, in Seneca Co., New York. His mother died when he was three, his father five years later.

Ovid and Pulteney, Steuben Co., NY, were early centers for my family with surnames Wilson, Duncan, McNelly and Hood. The Wilsons (among whom was Alexander Wilson, the American ornithologist) and Duncans (among whom were Mary (Wilson)--Alexander's sister, James, William, Alexander, etc.) arrived from Scotland between 1794 and 1803, settling at Ovid. The McNellys consisted of John (from Ireland), Isabella (Duncan)--Mary (Wilson) Duncan's daughter, William, James, Mary, Catherine and Isabella. Most of these ultimately moved to Pulteney, where Mary married Samuel Waddell, and later John Coryell. Catherine married James Hood and moved to Michigan 1834/35. I have more info, and need more. Any help would be much appreciated!!!

WAGNER

I am seeking information about my grandfather, Earl WAGNER. He was born in Pultney or thereabouts, I believe, in the mid to late 1890s. I do not know the name of Earl's father or grandfather, although I believe that they were descended from Melchior Wag(e)ner, who with his brother, Abraham Wagener, were early settlers of Penn Yan, arriving in then Ontario County @ 1796. My grandfather, Earl, was killed in a farming accident in the 1920s in the Town of Hammondsport at a place known locally as "The Crow's Nest." He left three young daughters and his wife, Fanny Sinsebox Wagner. He is buried in Pleasant Valley Cemetery. Any information about him and his forbears would be greatly appreciated.
