

Old Baptist Church Cemetery

Caton, Steuben Co., NY

Copied by Marie B. Cornell, when visited on Sat., Oct. 22, 1966, accompanied by Roy Thurber, a native of Caton twp. Cemetery covered with a tangled growth. Only a few tombstones could be reached, and fewer were legible. The early Baptist church stood just above the burying ground. The site is close to the present village of Caton. There is another compilation of this cemetery with notes. Please see the bottom under the data.

Thanks Marion! Typed and formatted by Judy Allen Cwiklinski

Dolly Babcock, d. Aug. 11, 1843 aged 29y 11m 13d

- wife of N.C. Babcock
- In memory of

Elias P. Babcock, d. Mar. 25, 1866 aged 90 y - 9d

? illegible, d. Mar. 26, 1854, aged 53y 2m 26d

Lucinda Babcock, d. Nov. 22, 1867 aged 70y 2m 21d

This information was on a sheet that says Per George Hill - 8/14/78

"On the hill West of the Center near the telephone exchange building is an old cemetery. I have been told it was the Baptist Cemetery. Here are a few stones. Iva Riley gave me the following:

Possible Pin__? - Mar. 26, 1854 aged 53 y. 2 mo.

In memory of Dolly, w/of N.C. Babcock, d. Aug. 11, 1843 aged 29-11-13

Lucinda his wife?, d. Nov. 22, 1867 aged 70-2-21

Elias P. Babcock, d. Mar. 25, 1866 age (8)9 yrs 9 days